THE Morristown Gazette believes that Governor Porter ought to have a second term. It says:

Our European dispatches this morning relate that the cause of the following grounds: Carlists is hopelessly lost. Alfonso, to use an expression familiar to the shoddy chivalry, is "cock of the walk," and monarch of all he sueveys. We are glad the thing is over. We have scarcely ever witnessed a dog fight that we didn't have some sympathy for one side or the other, but this sham fighting which has been going on in Spain so long, and which has been the burden of our foreign dispatches, has been so utterly insignificant that we didn't care a copper which side won. It was a big fight, Third-They are a genuine pharmawe suppose, but there wasn't enough hurting done to make it interesting. If Don Carlos and King Alfonso could have gone into the ring, a la Mike McCoole or Ned O'Baldwin and fought it out like two roosters, it would have been well enough, for they are not good for anything else. But as it is, we presume, a great many ignorant Spaniards have been the dupes of one side or the confirmed, and the Lungs so strained other, and have lost their lives in their hopeless endeavors to follow the fortunes of a silly leader.
